

Senior Pharmacist (Clinical Services)

REFERENCE NO.: GHK-SPHA-CS

Job Descriptions:

- Assist to oversee the development, implementation, and monitoring of hospital clinical pharmacy operations and medication-related management systems, adapting best practices, systemized approaches, and evidence based medicine & other clinical decision support tools in the delivery of safe and optimal patient care
- Work with hospital medical, nursing, and other multidisciplinary healthcare teams in the development and implementation of an effective medication management system in the hospital
- Identify, plan, develop and deliver educational/training and development programs for pharmacy staff and other health care professionals
- Assist in the development and operation of hospital medication-use process and pharmaceutical services provision in the hospital
- Perform and supervise the hospital medication-use process; ensuring effective and efficient provision of designated pharmaceutical activities and pharmacy services.
- Participate in Pharmacy-related hospital projects as and when required

Requirements:

- A holder of Bachelor of Science Degree in Pharmacy awarded by institutions recognized by the Pharmacy & Poisons Board of Hong Kong with a valid practicing certificate;
- At least 4 years' post-registration experience as a pharmacist plus a relevant postgraduate professional degree or equivalent

Experience acquired as a pharmacist after registration with recognized overseas registration authorities but prior to registration with the Pharmacy and Poisons Board of Hong Kong can also be accepted as post-registration experience

- Solid professional practice knowledge and work track record, specializing in clinical pharmacy operation and teaching a plus
- A team player with good communication skills
- Innovative, adaptive, with good systemic and analytical thinking skills
- Professional commitment to safe medication practices in hospital patient care